Mr. Duval from a select committee, reported the following proposals, viz:

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 13, 1840.

To the Committee on Printing.

GENTLEMEN: I will do the miscellaneous printing of the Senate, at four cents the one hundred words, counting the first twenty copies; and will furnish the Senate with as many more extra copies as they may require free of charge.

I will print the Journals of the Senate (750 copies) in good type, and on good paper, at $3 50 a page including folding and stitching, and publish the same in the "Star."

The work to be completed within 15 days after the Secretary shall furnish me with the Journals of the Senate.

Respectfully,

J. B. WEBB.
